DIVORCE

After Divorce

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Dec. 28.—Thomas A. Calk, the retired lumber merchant of this city, and his former wife, Mrs. Mary M. Calk, who is now Mrs. Leonard Pope of Reading, Mass., have just been divorced by the court. The divorce was granted on the ground of adultery and the wife was awarded custody of the child, a son, who is now in the hands of the mother. The divorce was granted by Judge J. W. Bartlett, who is now in the hands of the mother. The divorce was granted by Judge J. W. Bartlett, who is now in the hands of the mother. The divorce was granted by Judge J. W. Bartlett, who is now in the hands of the mother.

The attorneys were astonished when the former husband and wife income finally agreed in the division of their property. The divorce was granted by Judge J. W. Bartlett, who is now in the hands of the mother. The divorce was granted by Judge J. W. Bartlett, who is now in the hands of the mother. The divorce was granted by Judge J. W. MUTT AND JEFF ARE REGULAR FEATURES OF THE SUNDAY AMERICAN

TO-DAY'S STOCK MARKETS; FINANCIAL NEWS

UTAH COPPER SOLD FREELY

NEW YORK, Dec. 28.—Narcissus Mining preferred was the strongest feature of the stock market at the opening today, advancing 1 1/2 to 2 1/2, in continuation of the movement in this stock. Although there was a little irregularity at the opening, a steady tendency developed and prices responded in nearly all stocks to the first strong advance. Copper was the most active, rising 1/2 to 1 1/2. The price of the metal was higher, new contracts were made, and fractional increases were given in Lohr Valley, Northern Pacific, St. Paul and Atchafalaya. American Copper and Southern Railway were unchanged. Reading was up 1/4 to 1 1/2. American in London were quiet, but rising slightly on the market.

STATE ST. NEWS FOR INVESTORS

Although weakness is not pronounced in the market, an indefinite sentiment has passed over the Street that seems to prevent lower prices next week. No doubt any definite information, but the Street Trust funds have largely been liquidated.
